

SENATOR FOOTE.
We believe that we were among the first who had the honor of bringing into public attention Mr. Senator Foote, of Mississippi. We were present in the Senate when he made his maiden effort, his great three days harangue on the Ten Regiments Bill, and the conclusion which we were to see, that Senator Foote was an ass. This was the expressed judgment of every gentleman who heard that speech, with whom we conversed. Our first impression of Mr. Foote had not been changed by his subsequent efforts, but rather confirmed. We always read what Mr. Foote says, upon the same principle that we read a joke, for the purpose of amusement. The latest display of Mr. Foote's ass was in a debate upon the motion made by Mr. Hale, of New Hampshire, to bring in a bill for the protection of property in the District of Columbia, which having originated out of the recent attempt to destroy property in the District by a mob, called forth all of Mr. Foote's opposition. The great and distinctive element of Mr. Foote's greatness is impudence, of that kind vulgarly called brass. His morals are all graded (degraded) upon the Mississippi basis, which repudiates the old-fashioned notions of duty, honor, and integrity, the more consistent one of never paying. In his speech on the Ten Regiments Bill, he undertook to demonstrate that it was perfectly right and proper for this nation to steal as much of Mexico as it pleased, because Mexico was too weak to successfully resist. And in the debate upon Mr. Hale's motion, in the Senate, on the 20th instant, Mr. Foote gives his views upon mob or Lynch law, which he opens and endorses and defends. He doubtless believes that he would be unworthy to represent such a high spirited and gallant State, if he did not fully accord with the wisdom and justice of this part of his judiciary system. We quote from the Daily Union. Speaking of Mr. Hale, Mr. Foote says:—
"If he really wishes glory, and to be regarded as the great liberator of the blacks—if he wishes to be particularly distinguished in this cause of emancipation, as it is called—let him instead of remaining here in the Senate of the United States, or instead of seeking himself a seat in the corner of New Hampshire, where he may possibly escape the indignation of good men throughout the republic—let him visit the good State of Mississippi, in which I have the honor to reside, and no doubt he will be received with such hosannas and shouts of joy as have rarely marked the reception of any individual in this day and generation. I wish him there, and will tell him to forward, in all haste, that he could not go ten miles into the interior, before he would grace one of the tallest trees of the forest with a rope around his neck, with the executioner's axe upon his neck, and the executioner's sword in his hand, and that he would be hanged in the open air."
Here we have Mr. Foote in his true colors as a man, dirty, impudent, a Mississippi mob. For this duty he offers as a volunteer. Like Felix Astor, in Quaker's Dances, who by the way he strongly resembles, nothing would give him so great pleasure as to have a hanging, and be master of the ceremonies. We even we are somewhat surprised that such language was permitted to be uttered in the United States Senate. No one, however, would speak it but a contemptible knave like Foote. The Senate will soon lose that hold which it now has upon the intelligence and respect of the nation, if such clannishness of mob violence, and such practices of impudence are suffered to have their own way. The whole debate, at which the above extract forms a part, is deeply interesting, and we regret that the pressure upon our columns precludes the possibility of our publishing it.—Boston Atlas.

Who is MAJOR BURNS?—Major Burns' name is closely identified with the Fallow examination and the "Leonidas" letter. The St. Louis New Era thus relates who he is: "He is a paymaster; his brother was, and perhaps is, court clerk of the court at Jackson, Mississippi. He used to make the lists, sweep the streets, and so forth—was a runaway slave, a coffee, and got to be a paymaster in the new forces."—London Atlas.

At the County Court in Rutland, Sarah Burr has recovered $375 against Aaron N. Loveland, for a breach of promise of marriage.

OPENING OF THE CANALS.—The Canal Commissioners had officially announced that the water would be let into the State Canals on Monday, the first day of May.

RATIFICATION OF THE TREATY.—The following is an extract from a letter from the City of Mexico, dated March 30th, in the New Orleans Crescent: "There is an acknowledgment in the Monitor, of the withdrawal of a few Deputies from Queretaro, who have stated that they will not return, and give as their reason, that they do not wish to vote for peace. If this is so, and the Monitor is very good authority, it argues to me that a breach will open between the members of Congress that it will be difficult for Pena and Rosa to heal. The withdrawal of one or two members, and such a pretext, will open the road for others to bolt; and as those who have retired urged patriotism as the incentive to the act, I much fear it will be caught at by many others who have been searching for some excuse to evade a vote on the questions of peace or war. With the masses, peace is not over popular, notwithstanding the well-informed people are so anxious for it; and it is the masses that these Deputies fear; and so fearing them, many of them will catch at any excuse to avoid an expression on the issue."

TERRIBLE AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—Miss Bridget Mongan, a young lady of 21 years, daughter of Mr. Morris Mongan, residing on William Street, was crossing Merrimack st. near Wells Block, on Monday afternoon last, when a runaway horse, with the fore wheel of a buggy attached, came upon her, caught her inside the wheel, and her dress becoming attached to the step, dragged her thence some thirty rods upon the pavement, to the stable of Pearl & Huntress. She was taken up horribly mutilated, and survived only a few minutes. The procession that attended her funeral on Wednesday was the largest we have seen in Lowell.—Lowell Gazette.

FROM NEW MEXICO.
Another Battle Fought.—Our Troops Victorious.—Fortran Cannon Captured.
By Telegraph from St. Louis to the Pittsburgh papers, we have confirmatory accounts of the battle fought at Rosella, sixty miles from Chihuahua. The Americans were victorious, and the Governor of Chihuahua, fourteen pieces of artillery, and a large number of prisoners were taken by our forces. The loss in killed and wounded on both sides is represented as heavy.

The newspapers are publishing a very long piece of the late John Q. Adams' poetry entitled "The Waste of Man." Man has many "wants," but we do not think that Mr. Adams' poetry is one of them.

A letter from Thames, Oxfordshire, England dated September 20, 1847, says:—"If you could inform the regarding an agency for the Lithotripic Mixture, if I could obtain it &c. I should be glad. We much admired the style in which it is put up, and have been strongly convinced of its great curative powers. It was tried here in a case of worms in a child, and with perfect success; a case of dropsy also was cured by it; some number of cases of eruptive diseases &c. I could send a large quantity, indeed my friends have offered me the money to forward for a few dozens of the article, but I know not where to address my letter, save through you." This was handed us by a gentleman from Canada who forwarded a quantity of Vaughn's Medicine to England for a sick friend. Such is its character all over the world. Call at the Agencies in this paper, under Great American Remedy, and get a pamphlet.

[From the Daily Mail]
It is with a great deal of pleasure that we can say that we are daily hearing of new cases where the Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters, which are sold by Brown, No 68 Washington Street, are effecting most astonishing cures in purifying the blood and assisting digestion. Many of the physicians have taken quite an interest in this compound, and it is considered by them the best article now in use for jaundice, indigestion, loss of appetite, weakness, and all complaints arising from impurity of the blood. It is really the best medicine now in use to purify the blood and eradicate all humors from the system. It is a very pleasant bitter, and easily taken. We can recommend it, with the greatest confidence, to our numerous readers. They will take our word for it, but try one bottle and satisfy yourself.

A SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, like every other disorder, motion of the blood, is owing to a large lot of impure matter, which when floating in the general mass of the circulation, are the cause of headache, giddiness, palpitation of the heart, and many other unpleasant symptoms, and when thrown upon the various parts of the body, are the cause of every malady incident to man. The Indian Vegetable Pills are always certain to remove headache, giddiness, and every complaint because they completely rid the body of all morbid humors, and everything that is opposed to health.
Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills also aid and improve digestion, and therefore give health and vigor to the whole frame, as well as drive disease of every kind from the body.
Sold in single boxes at 25 cents each.
Beware of Counterfeits of all kinds! Some are coated with sugar, others are made to resemble the outward appearance of the original medicine. The safest course is, to purchase of the regular agents only, one or more of whom may be found in every village and town in the State.

A VOICE FROM VERMONT.
Tunbridge, Orange Co., Vt., Nov. 25, 1845.
Mr. Seth W. Towle:
Dear Sir—I hereby certify that one year ago last June, I was violently attacked with a cold and cough, with a lame throat, and was unable to move from a couch during that summer. In December following my cough increased to an alarming extent, so that during that winter I lost about thirty-five pounds of flesh, and physicians with whom I consulted could give me no relief. It was thought by all that I should never recover. As my good fortune would have it, in March following, after suffering exceedingly through the winter, I heard of the beneficial effects of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, by way of a friend who had received the greatest benefit by the use of the article, and was induced to make a trial of it myself, and no words can express my obligations to that friend for thus recommending this article to me, and at the critical moment, he did, for I had not taken up one bottle before I was completely cured, and from that day to this I have not been troubled with a cough. I can cheerfully recommend it to all, as being a remedy of great value, hoping others may be induced to try it, and thus become convinced of its merits, and perhaps saved from the fatal grasp of consumption.
